Plaintiffs,

v.

HEWLETT-PACKARD FINANCIAL SERVICES
COMPANY, HEWLETT-PACKARD
FINANCIAL SERVICES (INDIA) PRIVATE
LIMITED, HEWLETT PACKARD ENTERPRISE
COMPANY, and DAVID GILL

Defendants.

AFFIDAVIT OF JASON YUYI

I, Jason Yuyi, hereby declare under the penalty of perjury as follows:

1. I make this Affidavit based on my own personal knowledge, under the penalties of perjury, and of my own free will.
2. On November 6, 2020, I submitted an application for two travel visas—one for myself and one for my wife and co-Plaintiff, Cathy Yu—to the U.S. Consulate in Beijing. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a screenshot showing that we are applying for two U.S. visas under a single application, and a certified translation of the same.
3. On February 23, 2021 my wife and I were granted visa interviews at the U.S. Consulate in Beijing, scheduled to take place on April 6, 2021. (See ECF 495-2.)

4. On March 30, 2021, I received an email from the U.S. Consulate informing me that all visa interviews scheduled from April 6 through April 9, 2021 had been cancelled. This would include our interview, which was scheduled for April 6, 2021. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of that correspondence.
5. Once my interview was cancelled, I had to try to reschedule it through the appointment website page. Cathy and I have checked the website nearly every day since, usually multiple times a day. However, each time I have checked the site, there have been no available appointment times. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a true and correct copy of the website—when I checked on April 27, 2021—showing that there are no time slots available, and a certified translation of the same.
6. On April 30, 2021, I located an interview appointment and immediately signed up for the first available slot, which is November 18, 2021. Currently, only the U.S. Consulate in Beijing—and none of the other locations in mainland China—has interview appointments available for the applicable visa type. I will continue to check the website diligently to see if I can obtain an earlier appointment. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of the confirmation confirming my interview date, and a certified translation of the same.
7. On April 20, 2021, I went to my local Entry & Exit Administrative Office to pick up my Exit-Entry Permit (“EEP”) for my upcoming deposition in Macau. I also asked the officers when I would be permitted to travel to the U.S. While EEPs are only necessary for travel to Taiwan, Macau, and Hong Kong, Chinese citizens planning to travel abroad must obtain permission to do so from their local EEAO. The EEAO informed me that due to COVID-19 travel restrictions, I would not have permission to travel to the U.S. for at least the next month or two. They were not able to tell me when I would be able to do so.

8. My upcoming deposition is scheduled from May 10 to May 12, 2021, starting each day at 6:00 p.m. EST. Due to the twelve hour time difference, the deposition starts on May 11, 2021, at 6:00 a.m. Macau local time. I booked flights that land in Zhuhai Airport, on the border of Macau, on May 9, 2021. Attached hereto as Exhibits E and F are true and correct copies of my flight tickets, and certified translations of the same.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.
